

The South Liberty Public Library information system is going to digitalize the current manual library workflow system. In addition to manage the library materials electronically, the new system will also allow library members to check out and check in books online easily. Meanwhile, it will best serve the librarians to keep track of the borrowed books and manage user accounts more accurately.