

How business functions: Any fines will be generated as soon as a delay in loan period happens. It will enable the librarians to record the unreturned books as well as the fines respectively and within a proper time frame.

This information system will clearly deliver messages between library members and librarians. For example, the creation of digital patron accounts of the new system will assist members to check in and check out books that have been returned and generate a record as soon as possible.