

For patrons and librarians who would need to manage/browse library materials and workflow online the South Liberty Library Project is an information system that will improve processes and productivity for both patrons and librarians. Unlike the current system our product will allow patrons to check out and check in books online easily and also help the librarians manage materials and user accounts more accurately. This will support the South Liberty Library by making processes run more efficiently and smoothly.